Michael Anthony McCoy, Sr. age 55 passed away peacefully on November 10, 2023 in Manchester, TN. He was born July 28, 1968 in Nashville, TN to Harlen Ross McCoy, Sr. & Connie A. McCoy. In October 2017, Michael suffered a massive stroke. He resided in multiple nursing homes for the last six years of his life. Michael was cared for by his dedicated and loving mother throughout his illness. She advocated for him tirelessly with the same indomitable will and spirit until his passing. He was a mischievous, beautiful child that grew up to be a very handsome man. He accepted Christ and was baptized at Edgefield Baptist Church at an early age. Michael was educated in the Metro Davidson County School System. He was athletic, playing baseball, running track and boxing. He attended modeling classes, had a few modeling shoots and was in a Fleetwood Mac video (one of his proudest moments). Michael helped his father in the flooring business. Michael enjoyed and was very passionate about working out. He spent countless hours in the gym, "perfecting his physique". Michael loved old music and movies. He also had a beautiful singing voice and loved karaoke. Some of his favorite groups and singers were Elvis, Bread, Journey and the Bee Gees.
