“ My favorite memory of Mr. Crouse: One day (before our Biology class ended) Mr. Crouse allowed the class clown -- you know who you are! -- to imitate every single teacher at Our Lady of Pompei! Mr. Crouse sat at his desk and laughed and laughed and laughed! He was a great role model -- loved the Orioles. Enjoy heaven Mr. Crouse -- you deserve this happiness.

“ Mr. C was the best teacher and coach that I had the pleasure to have. He pushed me in b-ball practice and had faith in me on the court. Never forgot the time the class asked for extra credit questions on a test .He looked right at me and said name the teams in the final four knowing it would help me. Good man

“ Rest in peace Mr. Crouse. I was fortunate enough to have Mr. Crouse (or Mr. “C” as we called him) in homeroom when I was a freshman at Our Lady of Pompei High school in Baltimore, MD. It was during the time of the sitcom “Welcome Back Kotter.” We had so much fun copying pranks, from the show, to play on him and he laughed with us. He really enjoy coaching and attending our sports events. Mr. C always looked out for the students and even came to our 20 year reunion. It was so great to see him, Pat, and pictures of their children. He was definitely one of the best.
