“ Hello Sandi. Every so often I think of my pen pal of many years. This time I looked up your name, plus Wisconsin, and found this obituary of your husband, Mike. I know it's been over 9 years now, and you may never see this, but I want you to know you are in my thoughts, even at this late date. I wish you the best in life, always.

“ Sandi, When I think of Mike, I always think of the River to River Ride and how I KNOW we would never have made it without Mike crewing, setting up camp, doing laundry and keeping our spirits up. And maybe keeping us from murdering those mares when they kept getting stronger and we didn't! I also think of all those UMECRA rides and a million other shared happy times. Mike always kept us laughing no matter what... I love you both, Paula

“ Sandi,
I am in such shock that I had to pinch myself to make sure this really happened. Mike was quite the guy, I remember him bringing a stool along when we were going shopping with the truck so that I could get in and out without hurting my back. People laughed and we thought it was funny too, but that was Mike's way of helping someone else.

“ Mike made me smile almost every day. He used to write little notes or make me paper "things" (earrings and sunglasses were among my favorites) and always seemed to be there with the right words if I was having a rough day. May his memory live on in the hearts of all who cared for him, may he be behind your secret smiles.

“ My prayers go out to Sandi and Mike's family. Sandi and Mike bought one of my photos to hang in their new home as it reminded them of a place they had visited. I learned that Sandi and Mike were happy together and were enjoying the move and warm winter weather in TN. They loved animals and each other....they appeared to me to be a team.....one with the other. Such a joy to have loved one so special....many people don't have that blessing in life. May the memories last a lifetime and may God console you at this time.
