“ Misty was my bestfriend, I considered her a second mom to me. She meant alot to me. I lived with her for almost 5 years and those were the best 5 years of my life! I knew I could talk to Misty about anything, and shed listen. Shed always find a way to help if she could. I saw her suffer and it sucked. I absolutely hated it. but You no longer suffer. You are with the father. I am so happy you arent suffering anymore. We had many ups and down. we had good and bad days the bad days when we argued or got into a fight we worked it out and everything was okay. Everything has changed so much. Lucas is getting so big! He looks just like her. If only she could be here now.. I love and miss you with all my heart.. Rest In Peace: Misty Dawn Perry Love you always, Kelsey

“ Dear God in Heaven. I am so Sorry for Misty's death. Carol took such wonderful care of Misty. I had no idea that Misty was so ill at the end. Danielle, I pray for you and now learned from Billy that you have five children to raise. Know you have learned from your Mama, Carol was a Great Mom. I did love her. I send my love to you, Aunt Patty

“Misty, my sweet third daughter. It is so difficult to think you are gone from this life. You are loved by so many and you touched each of our lives in so many amazing ways. I will miss your smile and your laughter and the way you lit up the room with your charm and grace. You suffered a lifetime with pain and I recall you telling me there was not a day that you lived that there was not discomfort and swelling in your body somewhere. I can only imagine the suffering you endured for 27 years. I am so sorry.

But, now in the presence of the Lord your Savior, you are no longer in pain and in fact you are running and dancing the streets of heaven with your Momma that loved you dearly and your body is completely made whole and brand new.

I weep because I no longer will be able to hold you in my arms, but I would never wish you back here for a single moment. You are finally at rest, at peace and pain-free.

James Lucas is alive and carrying on your legacy, he is greatly loved and will have many "momma's" to care for him. Don't worry, all is well!

Until we meet again one day, I love you baby girl!
