“ Mitch was a great guy. We got to know each other through our children being on the Youth Evangelistic Team together the past two years. He was so supportive of his children in their adventures. He was super proud of them!
He was always sharing videos of the kids! He will be greatly missed.

There are no words we can say to take away the pain but know that we love you all and are praying for you.

“ I remember Mitch and his family from Meadow Grove Baptist Church when we were growing up. We always loved his family and it was good to catch back up on Facebook. Will miss his videos of his children. You could tel he loved his family. I know he was welcomed in haven by his mom and dad. My prayers are with his family.

“ I remember Mitch being a skinny boy at Meadow Grove MBC in Tallulah La. I loved his family and will always be dear to my heart. Going to Youth rally's, catching fireflies and smashing them on our faces. What great memories. Now he is with the Lord.
