“ Molly was the cousin that I always wanted to visit and talk with. Her father, Oliver, and my grandfather, Dick, were brothers. I would see her a lot on the highway or at the grocery but she was a very private person and I tried to respect that. I have missed her this week and wish I had been more persistent and tried to visit with her. I am very sorry for your lose.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Ms. Mollie's passing today . She and I are neighbors across the field . I was planning to take her a plate of dinner after church tomorrow , we tried to do that pretty often . Please know that my prayers are with you , however you were related to her. I worry about her puppies , and how they are fairing .
