“ When I first met Nancy at the nursing home where we worked together, we just clicked right off and became such good friends. We had a little inside story of our little group of 4 at work and that's where she got her name to me as Granny B and I was sister B to her ,it's a cute story behind it all but that will forever be one of the most memorable memories of us.I love that lady to the moon and back and I'll see you one day Granny B, save me a seat on that bench near the creek,I love you Granny B 💕 your forever friend Sister B (aka) Lisa

“ I am so missing you right now momma your kind words and understanding and just listening always made me feel better. There could never be another mother in law momma that was more loved than you. God has gotten a very special angel in heaven. Thank you God for allowing us the time we had and the time we will have again one day. Love your daughter Darlene
