“ You were my very first friend in that strange box called a WebTV. You always fussed at me when I did something dumb, gave me a shoulder when I was down, and laughed with me because we could! You would ride my ass hard if I was headed in the wrong direction which in turn, earned you the nickname I called you just being a smartass... 'Momma'. What you gave me most that will never leave my heart was your unconditional friendship and your undying love. You, my Wonderful friend were one of the Very few God given Treasures I will have had in this life. Thank You for You. I love you "Momma"

“ Last November, while my bff Missy was in town from New Mexico, we were able to visit with Niki and Terry at the Olive Garden in Clarksville TN. There were others there including my sister Robin and Martha Fox. Poor Terry had listen to put hen chatter for about 2.5 hours. But getting to spend an afternoon with Niki gives us a wonderful memory to hold onto. Niki will be so very missed by many of us. I will cherish all of the conversations I had over Facebook with Niki in the last year. We spoke last on July 19th, She was going to Vanderbilt to be placed on the Liver Transplant list. I so wish I could talk to her again. Hugs to you Terry, she loved you so much. RIH Niki sis!
