“ I loved Nikki so much. From the day I met her, I knew we'd be friends. I loved her frankness, her honesty, her sense of humor and her big ole heart. There was no hidden agenda with her, no doubt of what she was thinking or how she felt. She was giving and kind, a bubble of genuine. Back when we worked together & I was having trouble from a co-worker, Nikki always was there for me. She was my ally and I knew I could always count on her to watch my back. Although we haven't seen each other in person since that time, we remained friends. Nikki was such a wonderful person who loved life and loved her family to no end. While our hearts are breaking because of such a big loss, heaven has gained for sure. I know we will see her again one day. Nikki, we all love you so much. Prayers for her family.
