“ Dear Mark and family of Mr. Earheart. Maria and I were saddened to learn today of the passing of your father, Mr. Norris Reese Earheart. We both know what it is to lose our dads. I wish we could have known him in this world, but we are so glad we know you and look forward to the time when we will meet him in the eternal world. Be assured we empathize with you and all the family and are praying for God's comfort to be yours.
With love,

“ I fondly remember his love of his wife, his family, and the game of golf. A quick, quiet smile was always lingering at the corners of his mouth. He'll be missed deeply and lovingly.
