At the age of 18, she married Walter Ray Crowe who served in the United States Army, in a small ceremony in 1947. Together they would have three sons; Danny, Robert, and Randy Crowe. She remained a loyal housewife and mother, while Walter served for 24 years in various assignments to include the Korean War and Vietnam War. She was well traveled and enjoyed crafting, baking, painting, writing, and reading. She was a loved mother, grandmother, great grandmother, friend, and many more.

She is survived by her sons: Robert Crowe and his wife Sheri Crowe (Springfield, TN) and Randy Crowe and his wife Beth Crowe (Holly Springs, NC); granddaughters: Melissa Beamon (South Mills, NC), Michelle Gaskins (Chesapeake, VA), Brandy Vander Sys (Wichita Falls, TX); and four great grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents; Marvin and Ruth Libke; husband Walter Crowe; son Danny Crowe; grandson Austin Crowe; and several siblings.

As per her wishes, a later ceremony will take place in Sparta, Wisconsin, for her and her late husband as they are laid to rest next to their late son Danny.

In lieu of flowers, the family is asking to make a donation in her honor to the American Heart Association.

“ Pat was always kind to me. My fondest memories with Pat were playing cards with her and Bob. I'll never forget coming to visit and hearing that her and Bob had liked the last game we played enough to challenge each other almost daily. I was so happy to be there and play with them. I love you Pat.
