“ Aunt Patti,

I'm sorry our last visit was not under better circumstances. I enjoyed talking to you outside, just the 2 of us. I'm glad I got to see you again. I hope you're up there with momma and Papa Joe, tell them I said hi, and give Jesus a hug from me. Til we meet again.

Sorry to hear about the loss of such a memorable soul. She was my husband's cousin, and one of the most memorable people I have ever known.
