“ I loved my friend, Patty. She was always kind and good to me. I am thankful she is at peace now in her Savior's arms.
I met Patty in San Gabriel, Calif. when I graduated from High School. I was one year older than Patty. We attended the same church from then until now. That is a precious memory in itself. Many Sundays she invited me over to her folks house for dinner after church. Patty was there when I git married in 1970. She attended the guest book at my wedding. At Chino Church, we shared good times with our kids growing up, carpooling to and from school events.
In our later years, I was privileged to enjoy several trips to Florida with Patty, Darlene, Sue and I. We called ourselves "The Golden Girls." Patty was generous with us and poured out love on us every trip.
Shopping was big on shopping too. I remember how thrilled she was when she found just the right dress for April, her daughter. Patty loved to cook and she was a good healthy cook, too.
I won't forget you, Pattycakes. Sometimes she liked that & sometimes not.
Rest in peace, dear Patty. I will forever cherish our friendship.
Sincerely, Gerry
