“ Lisa, I am just now reading the obituaries and finding out about your Mom.

She is now healed and enjoying being with her loved ones and all of the people gone before. You were a wonderful daughter with no regrets. I know you will miss her though. She was a beautiful soul . I am thinking about you at this time.

Much Love and Prayers for comfort,

“ Lisa,
I wish I could tell you it gets easier to lose a parent, but it never does.
Our paths intersected so much growing up that I have memories of your mother for all of my life.
I remember thinking it was so cool finding our mothers' pictures in the SHS 1945 school composite in the halls at school. It was hard to imagine them being our age.
Prayers for your family.
Sincerely,
John Paul
