“ Aunt Jean,
I just read about Perry and wanted to send you, Tim, Moe and the rest of the family my deepest sympathy. Perry always made me laugh when ever we had the chance to be around you all. I will always remember him taking Tim and I with him to the barber shop one snowy saturday morning. I don't know how Momma and I had eneded up spending the night with you guys, but we did. I remember that Moe was a very little baby at the time. I think of you often, especially Tim when March rolls around and we have our birthdays. I never knew that Perry and I had the same birthday. Love to you all. Terri
