“ My cousin, Philip Mooers, will be missed very much. I enjoyed seeing and speaking with him at family outings and in Maine when I saw him a few times over the past 20 years at his sister, Cathy's home. Phil was always pleasant and interested in what his family was doing and catching up with family members' lives. May he rest in peace.

“ I will miss my Uncle Phil very much. He was warm hearted and loved to share a good story. He had a great sense of humor and an enormous appetite for reading (a trait that my son inherited). He always made time for family. I remember how he and Aunt Josie drove across country to California then flew to Seattle to attend my wedding. It was so special to have them at our celebration. May God bless him!

“ I'm saddened to hear of Philip's passing. It's been a long time since I've talked with him during family social gatherings. We were about the same age. I was born in January 1941. I always enjoyed those moments we had together. Jimmy Lee
