“ I had the opportunity to visit with Phil two weeks before his death while at the doctor's office. He recognized me as Little Phil's Kindergarten teacher and asked me if I was Miss Nancy and a Tolleson. I told him in fact my Mother was a Tolleson and yes, I did teach Little Phil. We had a wonderful t thirty minute visit with laughter and catching up. I went to the doctor this past Wed. and told him about Phil's death. Both he and his nurses were shocked and expressed their fondness of Phil. He brought joy and an air of freshness into a room. My love to Little Phil and Pat as well as the other family members.
