“ Mr. Arnold will always be remembered as a kind and caring Grandfather to Ricky and Ryan. He picked them up at one fifteen from Kindergarten at Jo Byrns when I had both in my class. They were always glad to see him. He was very supportive of me as their teacher and always interested in their daily activities and behavior. We need more grandparents and parents who care as their Mother, Janice did in her support of my being their teacher. It was good to see Ricky at the funeral home yesterday and I deeply appreciate him stopping me to speak. I do not know many of my "babies" as adults. Eddie and Nancy, you are also in my thoughts. It was good to see each of you as well. I regret that the ramp to the parlor where the family was receiving friends is not handicapped friendly being so steep that I was unable to come to speak to Janice and Ryan. Thinking of you all.

“ I love all y'all - Allison, Mike, David, Janice - and am blessed to have known Dean and Anne. Don't want to say any of the cliché "I know he's in a better place" or "well, he's with your momma now" but that last one is true - Sherry Hankins Stanley said it beatifully in her Facebook post to Janice. He WILL be missed!
