

Queenie Spurlock Ashabraner

December 22, 1925 - October 17, 2012

Queenie Spurlock Ashabraner, age 86, of Adams, was taken on the wings of angels to her heavenly home on Wednesday, October 17, 2012. Funeral services will be held Saturday, October 20, 2012 at 2pm in the chapel of the Austin & Bell Funeral Home in Springfield with Brother Bill Bruce officiating. Burial will follow in the Bellwood Cemetery with Jimmy Ayres, Dougie Caroland, Kenny Caroland, Scotty Cavendar, Omer Gene Brooksher and Bruce Brooksher serving as pallbearers. Visitation with the family will be held at the funeral home on Friday, October 19, 2012 from 4-8pm and again Saturday from noon until the hour of service.

Queenie was born December 22, 1925 in Springfield, TN the youngest of seven children to the late John Lee and Josephine Jones Spurlock and became the epitome of what is considered a true genteel Southern Lady. She was a member of the Red River Baptist Church as she and all her family had been citizens of the Adams and Cedar Hill communities. She was an employee of the Acme Boot Company retiring after 15 years of service and loved her family very deeply and strongly, not just her immediate family but her extended family and friends.

In addition to her parents she is preceded in death by her husband of more than 50 years, Thad Ray Ashabraner, her great-grandson, Christopher Saylor and all of her siblings.

She is survived by son; Kevin (Tresa) Ashabraner of Adams; daughters, Wanda (Al) Thomas of Guthrie, KY and Karen Elmore Bonniger of Adams; grandchildren, Desiree Ashabraner, Kevin Ashabraner, II, Braxton Ashabraner, Tracy Thomas, Drew Elmore, Heather Saylor, Wendy (David) Markum and Kristin Grant; great-grandchildren, Cailin Thomas, Megan Saylor, Noah Saylor, Kyle Saylor and Jackie Elmore; and one great-great-grandchild, Kalianna Nicole.

Austin & Bell Funeral Home in Springfield is in charge of these arrangements.
