“ My dear Rach, even if I know that this monster was making its way to your demise, I denied it to myself, looking for a remission, especially for your kiddos. I know you are now with your mama, the one you missed so much, and between the both of you will make sure that Thomas and Kimora always feels your protection and your love. I am sorry I have no ways to go to your celebration of life but I am sure you know now that my heart is with you today and always. Rest in power my friend and remember that you didn't lose this battle, you actually won it with your courage and selfishness. I love you ❤️ Eudy 📺

“ My beautiful best friend! 😞 I dreaded this day for a while. I knew the time was coming but I just couldn't accept it. I don't know how I am going to live my life without you in it. You were the absolute best friend I have ever had. I am so thankful that God put you in my life. I cherished everything about you. You were the best mother to Thomas and Kimora. They loved you so much and you loved them! I will never replace you! No other person could ever take your place anyway! You were a once in a lifetime friend and I am so grateful you were my best friend! I would give anything to have you back but I know you were in so much pain! 💔 You are finally free if that pain Rach! As bad as it hurts, you are in a better place! I will miss you tremendously. I will keep your memory alive always!! Until we meet again, I will look for you in the sky! I love you always!
