“ I don't think Randy knew how much he touched everyone's lives. He could brighten a room with his smile and the reason was because it was a genuine feeling. He truly cared about people. He was a sterling example of letting your light shine. I have so many memories of him that I will always cherish. May God comfort each and every one of the family. Sherie Hall-Ellis

“ Randy was one of the kindest people I've ever met. He worked for the City of White House for some of the time that I also did. There wasn't anything he wouldn't do for someone in need. I was privileged to know him. -Judy Speight

“ Randy was a true example of a Christian husband, father, and friend. He always had a smile on his face, even in the pain of battling cancer. One of my favorite memories of Randy is this. After he had started the battle with cancer, we were leaving from a visit with him at his house, and he hugged me out by the swing and the pond. He was very physically strong, and he squeezed me hard as if to say, This is gonna be a battle, but I'm strong. He was even stronger mentally. He fought with courage, and he won, because he did not allow cancer to change his character. Can't wait to see him in Heaven.
