“Mrs. Allen, Kim and Girls, I regret that I was unable to attend the service to celebrate the life of a dear friend and co-worker. I always had fun with Becky and her humorous stories. She was an excellent teacher and I missed her when she left to become principal in Nashville. It was always like a homecoming when I would see she and her Mother at Walmart! We laughed and talked a LONG time. Becky impacted many lives as a teacher. Her students, I am sure, are better people for having her as an example in their lives. I love you all and hope one day I can visit. Right now, I am battling a horrible infection with two powerful antibiotics in IV. This has been an ongoing journey for a year.

Remembering you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Becki's sense of humor was much like her brother Boyce. Her laugh and smile will be missed. We know she is celebrating home coming with Mr . Allen and Boyce among a few. Precious Jesus has her now and we too will be with her one day. We love you Mrs Allen, Kim and girls.
