“ Gina was my best friend ever. We first met in 1980 when we both worked for Cain Sloan in Security. She was at Rivergate and I was at Green Hills. We both played softball against each other for our companies teams at Percy Warner Park. She for sure was a pistol of a softball player. Later she helped me get a job at the transportation company where we became even closer friends. Although we had not been in touch for quite a while, Gina called me last week and we shared memories of our long friendship recalling so many fun memories we had had over all those years and how much we loved each other and were still best friends. Gina will be dearly missed and I treasure all those years.
