“ I remember when I cut my eye out on the motorcycle, I knew you could fix it, you showed me how to ride horses, what it takes to take care of animals, how to fix ANYTHING mechanical, you taught me how to shoot, and we went back on horseback and YOU and me got my first deer, you were my soccer coach, baseball coach, cub scouts, you were there when I graduated noot camp, ik know you are not hurting and that makes me happy, I love you so much and I want to call you one more time. I can't wait to see you again. RIP pops.

“ It was just my father and me and we took one pack horse plus the two that we were riding and were headed into Angel springs, it was cold and I had a poncho that was leaking and I was soaked to the bone, when we arrived dad told me where to look and find dry wood so we could get a fire going so he could get me warm, so I went out looking for wood and all I wanted to do was curl up and sleep, which is a sign of hypothermia, so that's what I did and my dad found me and carried me back to our area and slowly got me warm, that was a rough week, but without this man I would not be here today.. I will miss this man forever, he had wisdom, intelligence, and just knew what to do in every situation. This country lost a GREAT patriotic American, and my mom lost her best friend and husband of 55yrs. Pops, I love and miss you, I cannot wait to see you again

“ I have known Richard Hogue for some fifty years. He was a man of infinite patience, monumental integrity, and the possessor of a vast portfolio of competencies.

I have many memories of times spent with Richard. When we would go for target practice, Richard was one of the few who could regularly outshoot me. But my favorite Richard Hogue memory is the time when his newly-acquired four-wheel drive pickup had a problem. He delivered it to the dealership where they could not correct the problem. Richard went there, showed them how to proceed, then, when they weren't able to follow his instructions, he personally performed the procedures required.

I have missed Richard's fellowship since his relocation from Arizona, but I know we will meet again.

I am consoled in knowing Richard is not dead until the last person who remembers him passes on. But then it won't matter, we'll all be together again.

“ To my favorite Uncle Richard. We loved spending summers at your house and riding horses with Blake and I always felt safe and loved when we were with you and Aunt Maxine. You were there to help my mom when it mattered most and I will never forget that, I was and am proud to be your niece. You were a good man like your father and there are not many men out there with the integrity and honesty you lived your life by. I miss you and am grateful for the memories. I felt Granny’s spirit with me today and knew you were home with her and Bompá and were going to be ok. I Love you and will see you on the other side someday! I send my deepest respect, love and condolences to your beautiful Bunny (Aunt Maxine) whom you loved dearly and your only son Blake and all your family who was there for you and cared for you in the end. Thank you to Blake for keeping in touch and to Keith and his wife for caring enough to be there for you the way it mattered most.
