“ Trying to find my childhood friends from Cambria Heights and this was not a result I expected. A better friend one could not ask for; always ready to share an adventure - from a bike ride along the parkway or up to the store for packs of Civil War News cards; from fun at Freedom Land to being caught inside a wave at Jones Beach and being able to talk to each other!; from catching lightning bugs with Timmy, Laurie, and Irene to eating watermelon and spitting seeds off The Bunneys' front porch... Our lives were very full of joy, happiness, and an easy companionship that just fell into place when we met.

My heart goes out to his family and friends for their loss of such a great guy. Too soon he has left us.

*May God bless,

“ I know Rick will always be associated with his drums. But the group from Cambria Heights will also remember him for when he took out his guitar and led us in sing-a-longs at parties. Rick kept reminding us that he did not know how to play the guitar. That did not bother us....we did not know how to sing. But the 230th "gang" appreciate his friendship and the laughs we shared with during during our "growing up" years. I will miss him, and my sympathies go out to Diane.

“ I would like to say sorry for your loss! And I'm glad I got to know Rick at Lowes he was a really nice guy and we would talk about different things. He always told me when we would talk I reminded him of home and I would tell him I loved New York and he would laugh! Thank you for letting me talk a little bit about our time at Lowes! We would have some fun.

“ We would like to extend our most sincere and deepest sympathy to Diana and Laurie for their loss. Even though we did not know Rick I meet him once many years ago when his father died. His sister Laurie is a close friend and we know he was loved by her and will be sadly missed.

Love, Rich and Karen
