“ I worked Rick at Lowe's after we had both retired. He was great to work with and taught me how key locks. He had a cheerful countenance always. You could not help but like him. I moved to Arkansas in 2015 and had lost track of him. He will be missed by all that knew him

“ I always wanted Rick to be my brother. I so respected him for many reasons. Intelligent, kind, funny, loved his family, could discuss any topic, able to fix anything, advice on ATVs. Always willing to help. I will always treasure our friendship. But there are more of you Gills he left behind, so I treasure you all as well.!
