“ The many years I have known Ricky, I don't think he ever met a stranger. When you talked to him you couldn't help but smile. He loved to pick on me as well as others, but that is just one of the great many things that most folks will always remember about him. I know he loved us & I don't think I ever walked away without a hug!! Ricky was my Husband's 1st Cousin & they were Family (of course he was family to me!!!). But he had so many Family/ Friends members that it didn't matter if it was blood. Because all those many, many folks he knew they were his family by LOVE!! Ricky & Scooter helped us with Bible School. Ricky wanted to be outside with Mark because they did the Water Games with the kids. But I will tell you this & I'm sure you won't be surprised that Ricky was hosing even the adults down!! I can hear him laughing!! If he cared about you, you know that would be forever! I LOVE You Ricky Hogue & when I get to Heaven I just know you will walk up to me and say "Well Bridgitte, I haven't seen you in a coon's age!" Don't forget to hunt Grandma down & recruit two more folks so y'all can play some Texas 42!!

“ Rest in peace forever, Rick. I'll miss your grumpiness and gruff. But also in return, you gave us your familiar laugh and helpfulness whenever we would need. You helped Dad in his last days in service and respect to hell have m die with dignity. And now we celebrate your passing on to be with the Mighty God that you confessed as your savior. We know that He accepted you with opened arms wide as you crossed the gates into heaven. May I see you again one day where all that accept Him and believe. I remember this conversation we had recently. And I'm glad He is yours.

*Rest, my brother.
Your time is now eternal.*
