“ Robert and I first met through work. He immediately impressed me with his talent concerning all things Konica Minolta. If no one else could solve the problem, I knew Robert could. But, even more than his magical ability with software and hardware, his contagious smile, his undeniable love for, and pride in his family, touched my heart. Always willing to share a hilarious story -- or several -- and quick to whip out his smart phone with photos galore, I knew he was a rare human being. My world, and this world is the worse for having lost him. My only comfort is that his suffering is over and his eternal life in Christ has begun. My prayers will continue daily, for his family and friends. For if I've lost something bright from my life -- in the limited capacity I knew Robert -- I can't begin to imagine the loss you feel. May God bless and keep you.

“ I met Robert through work and I can't tell you how many times he saved the day because he was so good at his job. It was his wonderful personality though that made us friends. He was honest, funny and dedicated and I'm very lucky to have had the chance to know him.

“ Robert wasn't only my cousin but he was my best little buddy growing up. I remember getting upset because you wanted everything just like me when we were kids but later in life I knew this was because you loved me and looked up to me. I wish I had been a better friend to you as an adult and we had stayed close. I miss you Bubba.

“ Robert and I were friends we coached travel ball together. The Highvoltage organization has lost a very special friend. I will miss my friend. One thing about good friends. You could go weeks without talking and bam you start right where you left off.

“ Thinking of the whole family in your time of loss. God needed Robert to come home where he sits at the right side of Jesus today! The Harris family is so sorry for your loss, but we don't say goodbye we say until we meet again in Glory! May God wrap his loving arms around each one of you today and heal your broken hearts as only He can.

“ I remember us all as kids running and playing. Robert had tight curls all over his head and was the youngest of our clan. We were all so young and innocent. We were untouched by the pain the world would hold for us in the future. I know we had not seen each other in many years but I will miss you.
