“ My prayers are with Mrs. Draper and the entire family. I always enjoyed the conversations and visits I shared with Mr. Draper, usually around tax time, but the visits usually got around to stories about the COOP and sports. Those are very fond memories for me. I will miss him.

“ A very good friend of mine since young boyhood days, lived close to Bobby on Locust St. in Springfield, played baseball on the first organized team ever in Springfield for boys our age with him. Also enjoyed many days in the last several years at Oak Hills golf course where he beat me most of the time. He will be missed by all that knew him, especially me.
