He left behind his wife of 30 years, Amber Hewitt, and three adult children; Nikolas (Shelby), Mason (Cameron), and Cori (Kai). He had three sisters; Kelly Williamson (Greg), Sandra Huffine (Chris), Angel Fielding (Charles), and an aunt that was as close as a sister, Deirdriu Coffman (Jeff). He had many nieces he loved, as well as many friends in multiple states.

He lived in Florida for the last 13 years of his life with his wife and three children. Robyn loved movies, music, playing guitars, and riding motorcycles. He was a full-time student starting a second career. He had a wonderful smile, a contagious laugh, and would help anyone in need. Robyn struggled with severe depression, along with several other mental health diagnosis. He chose to keep this from the world as many people do that struggle with mental health issues. These hidden struggles had a deep impact on him and the people closest to him. Robyn took his own life instead of letting loved ones help him. His family wants anyone struggling with depression or any mental health issues to please seek help and trust the people in their lives. Robyn will remain in our hearts and minds forever. He will be missed by so many.
