“ It was my privilege as his sister in law to know Roger for 40 years, to be able to see things a lot of people didn't get to see about him. To see the heart ache in his eyes when he seen other people in pain but the joy when he was able to get a laugh or smile from them. He never met a stranger. I loved Roger as a brother. You always knew he loved you no matter how heated your discussion became.

Roger was bigger than life he loved totally with his heart. He prayed for his loved ones daily. I remember how he cared for mom and dad before they passed. No matter how he felt that day he took care of their needs. I was more important than any words (actions over words). We always said God blessed Roger the day he met Pam but I think God knew Pam would need Roger later in their years together. His family was the most important thing to him. He didn't always get the credit for how loving and kind he was. Roger you will truly be missed. I love you my brother and look forward to the day I see you again.

*Love
Phyllis*

Everything you said was true Phyllis my sister. I also knew and had Roger as my brother in law for over 40 years. The only things I can add is Kids loved Roger because he could be funny with them and get down on their level which is a good thing and he was hilarious and very talented and accurate with his cartoon character impersonations. It was so good he could have done background behind the scenes cartoons characters as a living! Of course this endeared him to children and some adults which I confess as being one! When we ( my sisters and I) were caretakers for Mom and Dad in their last days it was so appreciated how he'd always be ready to run to the store and drug store for them which took some load off of us. We appreciated it. Usually you didn't even have to ask because he would call to see what he could do to help. He did have a big heart for people and never met a stranger. Oh and how he loved Mom and Dad and the whole family, his too. He would always attend each funeral to show his respect for the deceased and to show love to the living too, trying to bring peace to them. There is so much in my heart to say but it would take forever. I loved Roger but I didn't know how much I did until he was gone. I too am thankful of God's promise to see our loved ones again in Heaven! Thank you God for that, sometimes it's the only thing that keeps me going each day in this world that's changed so much. And I'd like to say thank you Roger for taking care of my sister when she needed you. God has given her the strength to make it through everything and she has her sisters like we all have each other's back so don't worry about her Roger. We'll see you soon in Heaven with everyone else that's gone on before. Love you Roger and I know in between praising Jesus you're probably entertaining all the children there with those cartoon character impersonations! ❤️💜❤️❤️❤️

That was Roger, Terri, you rounded him out so well. He loved life, and Joy and he is having plenty of joy in the presence of our Savior. "That's all folk's", as he would say in porky pig voice.
