

Ronald Lowell Ramey

September 29, 1945 - March 21, 2015

Abraham Lincoln once said, " In the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years." Ronald Lowell Ramey lived a life of adventure, passion, enjoyment, and generosity. He was know and will be remembered for his quick-witted, spot-on sense of humor and that he always wanted to give to someone else. His colorful personality has brightened many rooms and lightened many situations. His level-headed nature and pro-active mindset allowed him to be a great leader in his family, the military, and his career. He loved The Lord, his family and his friends. He loved bringing people happiness and joy through playing his guitar. His passion for golf allowed him to travel, make many friends, and spend quality time with them. His smile and humorous comments will be missed dearly. We know he will be playing some of his beautiful courses and playing his Martin guitar worshipping at the feet of Jesus. We will see you soon Ron! We love you more than you'll ever know! Your Family

“ Dad,

I just found this page and wanted to post as it has been a little over two months. The time has flown by. My new job, my house, Rachel, the cars, the dogs, all of my new responsibilities.... I still think about you almost every day. I don't really cry very often, because my memories are happy ones and I realize how blessed I am to have had you as a father. I can do nothing to thank you enough except take care of Mom, which I try my best to do from 2500 miles away. I call her generally at least every other day just to check on her and she seems to be doing alright. I've gotta pay attention in my night class so I can get this Master's degree, but you'll always be Stone Cold Ron Ramey to me. I love you a lot and can't wait to see ya again. I never thought I'd really quote Wiz Khalifa's music, but it's fitting:

"It's been a long day, without you my friend, I'll tell ya all about it when I see you again."

“ Dear Dee and family,

Our Destin trip will never be the same without our dear friend Ron. He was loved by all of us "connie" guys and was such a joy to be around. We enjoyed his guitar playing and singing. He was such a talented guy. He loved all of us and we loved him. You and your family will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I loved Ron, we always had a good time. I was always glad to see him when he came for a visit at the office after he retired. He would tell me about all his antics at the community home. And we would get a good laugh. My life was better for having known you. I will miss you. Rest in peace my friend.

“*Rest in peace my brother you will always be with me.
Someday we once again play the same courses, and slip the surly bonds.*

Ron's friendship, love, and talent, all generously shared set him apart. Cherished memories of our times together at the 79th are endless, the golf, his tutoring me on the guitar fond memories, and then his smile.

May the Peace that passes all understanding be with you.

God Bless,

Steve Steinbring

High Flight

By John Gillespie Magee, Jr.

*"Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth,
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth of sun-split clouds -*

*and done a hundred things You have not dreamed of - wheeled and soared and swung high in the sunlit silence.
Hovering there I've chased the shouting wind along and flung my eager craft through footless halls of air.*

*"Up, up the long delirious burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace, where never lark, or even eagle, flew;
and, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
the high untrespassed sanctity of space,* put out my hand and touched the face of God."

“Daddy, so much of who I am is a direct reflection of you. I'm so incredibly blessed that God picked me to be your Chandra Panda. You'll always be missed, and I fully expect to sense your presence with me each time I play your favorite sport. I still think Johnny Cash doesn't hold a candle to you! Love you forever, Chandra
