I've known Ronda since Jr High School. Of course as we grow we do our thing. In and out of the lives of friends you have. I know the Ronda is ok now. No more pain. Her husband, David and daughter Shannon gave her all to go get her wings as David said. My prayers and strength are with all the family during this time. Rest now Ronda. I will miss our talks we had thru the last 12 years. I love u girl.

“ Sending love and prayers to Ronda's family and friends at this time. We discussed some of the people in music that we knew from up North and down here. She was always easy to carry on a conversation with. I really looked forward to my nail appointments. We prayed together about Shawn and she kept me up do date on how he was doing. We discussed our "Skylar" granddaughters. I counted her as my friend, not just my nail lady. Rest in Peace.

Over the years she became a very special person to me. Not just because of the pedicures but because of her ability to listen and talent of sharing which always seemed spot on within our conversations. She cared, she loved family, and loved others was my experience. And she wasn't reluctant to tell me how she felt about something. My last conversation with her was a request for someone else, not for herself. That was the Ronda I got to know. She is missed. Her race has been run. But now into the arms of our almighty Savior. My thoughts and prayers continue for you, her dear family. I know your hearts are heavy with your loss.

*Sincerely,
Don Belcher*
