“ We offer condolences to Ronnie's family. He was a great guy and such a joy to spend time outside with. We have lots of pleasant memories. I know everyone around Eastland Green will be missing him, along with his pleasant persona. I am quite sure the family has many more memories to think about and remember about Ronnie...

May your soul travel safely, my friend... Tom & Julia Daugherty

“ Ronnie was always ready to assist family, whether his own family or his in-laws. I really cannot remember how many times he and his boy Adam or boys Adam and David , have come to my assistance. As youngish divorcees, My sister Ellen and I moved many times from place to place, before we settled down several years later.

Each time we moved, we called Ronnie or my Brother Pat to help us move. At one point My Brother or Ronnie told me that "Gypsies should not own such heavy furniture!" I took this admonition to heart and started getting rid of my roll-top desk, my heavy oak dining table and other furniture that I felt I could do without.

Not just moving, but other chores such as tilling up my flower patch. Which Ronnie did when I moved into my present home. He brought his own tiller and tilled a patch, where I still have shrubs growing all these years later.

Ronnie was a great brother in law, and I really regret that in our later years we did not stay as close as we were when we were younger. I loved him as a brother, probably more than a brother-in-law! May he reap his rewards in the heaven with his God, who he was so in touch with!
