“ *Aunt Rosemary,
You were always so kind and lucky! I remember you winning tickets off the radio to every concert or event when I was growing up. Thank you for being part of my life that was so special. When me and my cousins were all together, You, Nanny, and aunt Millie are all together watching over the rest of us! Papa joined you guys this week as well. Give everyone hugs! Love you.

“ My dear aunt Rosie, I remember when I was about 4-5 you would always go to the fabric store and buy material and patterns, you loved to sew and I was so fascinated with watching you, you made Tammie and myself matching short outfits hers was red and mine was blue (my favorite color) I was so upset when I out grew it, you started making mine and momma's matching outfits for Easter every year. I truly believe you passed that passion of sewing down to me. That I will continue and thank you for inspiring me at such a young age. It's the little things that make us who we are. You will always be a happy funny kid that never grew up, may I be half the women you were. Love you and miss you. Give Lee and momma and my booger boy a big hug till we all meet again.
