“ Randy aND i are Roy's living sister's children
We remember, with great love what a marvelous uncle he was. He was always full of energy and eager to joke and tease us. Uncle Roy and our mother were very close, being the youngest of George and Ester's children. We are saddened at his passing but know we will meet later in that beautiful home above the clouds.

“ I also, will miss going out to the farm. As a kid, there was nothing more fun than building club houses, riding dune buggies, swimming in the cow pond then filling up on MaMa's country cooking. RIP MaMa & Pa Debbie Scott Dunavin

“ Some of the best times of my life were spent at my aunt AV and uncle Roy's place with my cousins. I so enjoyed listening to Roy talk about his adventures! I vividly remember our encounter with a copperhead. Was it fun? Sort of.... I will miss him. God bless all the family.
