“ It's been a year since you left us. Christmas was hard as hell. then Shannon got sick, so we brought new year in by being at the hospital again. all I could think about was you. Then Luna's birthday came. I know you are here watching over us and in our hearts, but it's not the same. I miss you like crazy. I know Luna sees you. I wish I could. even if it's in my dreams. since you've been gone, I've only had maybe 2 dreams about you... I love you pop and I miss you. I hope you are proud of me. keep watching over us and keep us safe. keep playing with Luna. FLY HIGH MY ANGEL!!!

“ Pop,

*This is gonna be more of a letter full of memories. I remember is going fishing together. I loved coming to see you when you were on job sites or when you were out of town. Because of you I got to see all kinds of places. I love looking at the pictures of us working on your red truck together and me kicking the oil off the dipstick. You are my only iron worker. You've always been here for me no matter what I needed. I know when I told you about Luna you hugged me and told me how happy you were for me. You told me several times how good of a mom I would be and how proud of me you were. I wish you would have gotten to atleast meet her once, but I promise she will know who you were and how important you were to me. She will know what you built in Nashville. Pop I love and miss you. You are always in my heart. Watch over all of us and keep us safe. Our Iron Worker.
Love your princess, aka Fred*
