

Sandra Jean Hale

March 18, 1959 - May 16, 2025

Sandra Jean (Loftis) Hale passed away peacefully at home on May 16, 2025, after a short battle with lung cancer. She was 66 years old, and the youngest of six siblings. Sandra was a lifetime resident of Tennessee, where she was born on March 18, 1959, in Nashville, TN to Harlan and Edna (Wakefield) Loftis. She married the love of her life the late James (Jimmy) Hale on May 10, 1980. They were married for 42 years before his passing. She had two daughters and one son. She was known for her strong will, stubbornness, and determination, but also for her enormous heart, generosity, love and support for her family and friends and her faith in God. Sandra also had a lucky streak, loved to play BINGO and her dog.

Sandra is survived by her daughter Kimberly (Tez) Henderson and brother Roger Loftis. She leaves behind four granddaughters Kelsey Snyder, Kennedy Snyder, Kaydence Snyder and Rylee Hale. Along with several cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. She is preceded in death by her father Harlan Loftis, Sr., mother, Edna (Wakefield) Loftis, husband James Hale, Sr., son James Hale, Jr., daughter, Lisa Allen, sisters, Geneva Thompson and Wanda Crutchfield; brothers, Harlan Loftis, Jr., and Calvin Loftis, along with grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and many others. Sandra was a beautiful person, wonderful mother, wife, daughter, sister, grandmother, aunt and niece. She cared deeply and made an impact on many lives. She will be forever missed and never forgotten. Until we see you again. There will not be a formal service, but those who wish may gather in memory of Sandra for a small graveside service for immediate family and close friends at Hillcrest Cemetery Columbarium 3141 Highway 31W White House, TN 37188 on Thursday, May 29, 2025 at 11am,, where she will be placed with her late husband and son.
