“Gigi was one of the sweetest and kindest ladies I have known. She always made me feel so welcome. We shared love for 3 of the great-grands. She will be sorely missed. My heart felt condolences, peggy hall

“This dear lady was my wonderful Aunt. She leaves this earth being my last Aunt, and baby sister to my Dad Rayburn Hughes. There are so many wonderful memories I have growing up visiting Aunt Sara Jane. She lived right across the field from my grandmother, so I've made many a treks through that field from one house to the other over the years. She was a wonderful cook and she cooked many meals for so many. She always had something sweet to offer you when we visited. She was one of God's children, and a member of Barren Plains Baptist Church for many years. The church practically was at her back door. I can remember several times when I visited her and my cousins, we would attend there together for different events. Aunt Sara Jane loved her flowers in the yard and every year there were always different ones come up that made her front and back yard look so colorful. I and my family will certainly miss this dear woman, as will so many others that knew her within the community. I Love you Aunt Sara Jane, and you will always have a special place in my Heart ❤️.
