“ Some of my fondest childhood memories include Mr. and Mrs. Bellar. No matter where I saw them, they were always smiling. Two of finest people to ever walk the earth that will be greatly missed. Their families are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Those of us who grew up around Woodland St. School were priviliged to know Mr Felix and Mrs Sarah. Sarah was a great friend to many, and had a smile as bright as sunshine. She will be missed by all those who knew her, and Springfield was a better place for her living there. Don and Helen (Gregory) Harpe
