“ I remember growing up how close we were. Of course we grew apart as we got older. Life happens and we always go our separate ways. But that never changed the fact we were family and I thought of her often and those fond memories of our childhood. She'll be missed.

“ My memory of Sarah is her running around at our family reunion in White Bluff. She leaves us way too soon. I can't make it to the funeral physically, but my heart and mind will be. God's peace and blessings to Reba and family.
