Tribute Wall

“ To the family of Sarah Schulte. I'm holding you close to my heart this evening. I pray that God will wrap his arms closer than ever around each of you, and give you comfort, peace, & strength that only He can give.

Sarah truly was a lady of faith. I will never forget the first time I met her. My husband & I had just moved into the area, and as we searched for a church, we met Sarah & Lyle for the first time. She threw her arms around me, and in her ever sweet voice, welcomed us. From that day on, we fell in love with two people that would become our best friends. Sarah quickly became a sister to me.

One regret I have, is that my husband & I had known them sooner, before my husband passed. We had such wonderful times together. He didn't live long after we found out he was sick, but Lyle & Sarah were always beside us on that journey. And they were here at 4AM on the last day of Dave's life. They answered the phone, welcomed people, fed them, kept the coffee pot on, anything they could do. And stayed with me after he passed. Sarah held me so close to her. I don't know if I could have made it without them. They were just the best friends, and their love was so real.

I will miss your mom's sweet voice, her warm hugs, and everything about her. Friends like that, you never forget.

I am so sorry for your loss, she dearly loved each one of you, and spoke of you often. Hold on to her love, and may we all realize, she isn't far away, she's just gone upstairs to another room. I'm sure she is praying for you, her beloved family. The Bible tells us that the saints in Heaven are praying for us, as we continue our journey.

Much love to all of you, and if you ever need anything, I'm only a phone call away.

*Deep Regards

“ As a young girl, I had several heroes. One was Sarah Head. As an older person now, I hope my life comes near to matching hers. Kind words were her strength.
