“ My husband Ed and I met Scott when he was the manager of Don Jose's in Wichita Falls. He was such a caring guy that he would give me toys from his toy machine for my special ed students. We loved going in there for good food and to see Scott! Fast forward a few years- he became manager of Carlitos in Electra. Scott was always so kind, so funny and we considered him a good friend. He was a wonderful manager and made Carlitos the success it is today! We miss you our friend, and will see you again! Family- so sorry for your loss and ours here in Electra, Texas. Love, Maggie and Ed Kieren.

“ I met Scott in 2012 when he hired me to be one of his waitresses at Carlitos Mexican Restaurant. He was a hard boss and difficult to deal with at work sometimes lol but he also became one of my closest friends. He taught me so much about work and life. The few years i got to spend with him we shared many arguements, tears, and laughs and he will be truly missed. Rest In Peace my friend
