

Shirley Dziekonski

March 8, 1921 - January 9, 2009

Shirley H. Dziekonski died peacefully Friday night, January 9, 2009. Her remains will be cremated and at some time this coming summer a graveside service will be held at her husband, Slim's, burial site in Franklinville, New York, where her ashes will be placed. Shirley was born on March 8, 1921 and was 87 years young.

Shirley was a vibrant, remarkable person with an unbelievably colorful history that began in Texas, lead her to Pennsylvania during her childhood years and on to Europe during the Second World War as a Staff Sergeant in the Women's Army Corps, and finally to a small farm in Western New York to raise her two children, Dan and Shelley. She joined her daughter and son-in-law in Tennessee in 1992. Shirley was preceded in death by her husband, Adam "Slim" Dziekonski in 1978. We will miss her.

She is survived by Dan and Laura Dziekonski of Paris, Tennessee, Shelley and Bob Cosey of Greenbrier, Tennessee and Grandchildren, Bethany and Adam.
