Sonia C. Andrews

July 21, 1934 – May 30, 2025

Sonia C. Andrews, 90, of Madison, Tennessee, passed away peacefully at home on May 30, 2025. She was born on July 21, 1934, in Pulaski, Tennessee.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, James V. Andrews Jr.; her parents, Earl and Mary Cole; her brother, Louis H. Cole; sister, Johnnie Mae Cole; and nephew, John E. Brown.

Sonia is survived by her devoted daughter, Angela Y. Vertrees (Michael), and her cherished grandsons: James A. Wright, Jonathan M. Andrews, and Justin M. Howard.

A graduate of Howard High School in Nashville, Sonia was a lifelong learner and entrepreneur. She was the proud owner of Pine Haven Antiques and also founded Historical Productions, which brought to life antique fashion shows and the celebrated First Ladies on Parade program.

Creative and artistic, Sonia had a gift for planning and executing memorable events. She also enjoyed sculpting, painting and writing. Her talents extended into the garden, where she was an active member of the local garden club. She loved to travel, whether in a group of friends or just her and Jim flying to new places. She was always ready to go. She loved seafood and the sound of waves crashing on the beach.

A woman of deep faith, Sonia was a long-time member of the Madison Church of Christ and later the Hendersonville Church of Christ, where she found community and purpose.

Sonia will be remembered as a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She will be greatly missed.
