Stan was born in Nashville, Tennessee, on July 9, 1960, to the late William Bluford Suratt and Elizabeth Adeline Wilson Suratt. Tennessee is the place he chose to call home for most of his life. He was an extremely hard worker and proudly called himself a truck driver until he had to lay down his keys due to his health, but he remembered those days fondly. He enjoyed watching football (GO TITANS!), hunting (when he was able) and all the fast food. When he entered the room people knew he was there because his laugh was like no other and he would definitely have you laughing. He is loved by many, forgotten by none, and he will live in our hearts forever as he drives the highway in the sky!!! He was a longtime member of Clarksville Highway Church of Christ.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his brother, Steven E. Suratt.

Survivors include his son, Jeremy Suratt; sisters, Susan Ferguson and Shirley Baskin; nieces, Rebecca Ferguson, Dakota Ferguson, Heather (Mike) Shubert, and Angela (Christopher) English; nephews, Tony (Pamela) Ferguson, Brian (Karen) Baskin, Chris (Heather) Ferguson, Todd Baskin, and Alex Ferguson; 12 great-nieces & nephews; and many friends.

If so desired, memorial contributions may be made to Clarksville Highway Church of Christ, 5444 Highway 41A, Joelton, Tennessee 37080 or Pleasant View Volunteer Fire Dept., P.O. Box 336, Pleasant View, TN 37146.

“ I had the privilege of meeting this great man about 20 years ago. I have many fond memories of us hanging out watching a race or football games or just sitting on the porch talking smack to each other, laughing and joking around till our ribs hurt. He will be truly missed.
