“ Over this last week ,I have thought of the life of Steve and the lesson that hopefully he has taught us all. Several times I have heard the word Simple and that is so true when I think of you. You loved and enjoyed life in a simple way, but lived life to the fullest, whether it was a Nascar race, a Vandy football or Yankee baseball game, and lets don't forget the times of WWF and Michael Myers with his nephews and nieces. You always made sure a fun memory was made in a simple way. You are now in heaven and seeing the beauty that we all long to see. Rest easy my friend, until we meet again. ❤️ Dennis and Paulette
