“ Steve taught our Sunday School class at Faith Baptist Church in Youngsville, NC. He was a fine, upstanding Christian man who loved his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He also loved his family, Dawn and his beautiful children. Steve was a wonderful teacher of the bible and he was very knowledgeable about the bible. We were going to take a year and go through the bible from the beginning to the end...needless to say, it took us about 3 years to do it! :-). After Dawn and the children moved back to Tennessee, Steve stayed in North Carolina to sell the house. Mark and I would invite him over to eat with us some and he loved to eat! We would talk and laugh and just have a good time. Have missed those times. Steve is with his Lord and Savior now rejoicing with Jesus! Our deepest sympathy goes out to his family and you are all in our prayers.
