“ I've known Steven his entire life...from a little child to a grown man, Steven has been a fun, loving, caring person...I will miss him, his laugh, his witty conversations, his love for life....everything! He was taken from us way too young...he had so much left in life to do. My sincerest condolences to the love of his life, Patrick. Love and prayers go out to you 🙏❤️ Aunt Renee Holguin

“ Steven had the best Laugh. Over the Last few weeks God blessed me to know him even better. Who else would tell you to make your husband go with him to get a free Big Mac for you at 11pm because the preds won.. I miss the text message or phone call at 9 at night ..The fact he could make you believe in yourself

Steven and Pat had joined our Covenant of the Cross Family this year. Their relationship was a joy to observe, and it was obvious Steven was a man of God, seeking to know his Maker better. Looking forward to seeing him later on...
