Susan Jean Brown, 72, White House, Tennessee passed away Sunday evening, June 1, 2025 at Hendersonville Hospital with family by her side. She had waged a long battle with several illnesses finally succumbing to pneumonia, after having her cancer go into remission. She was the daughter of the late Richard Jones and Lilian Treible. Born in Scranton, Pennsylvania, she was a 1971 graduate of Lackawanna Trail High School, Factoryville, PA, where she was a member of the color guard. Her home is decorated to celebrate every holiday with a variety of ceramic, porcelain, glass and handmade items. One of her favorite themes was the beach and the sea, as well as a Byer's Caroler or two or three for every occasion. She loved to read, especially books that helped support her faith. Susan was an active member of the First United Methodist Church in White House, where she took part in many activities-the choir, the Alter Guild, worship committee, and women's group. She was an organizer. Some of her successes including heading the committee to publish a new church cookbook as a fundraiser, keeping the crochet circle active during covid, and the "lunch ladies" social group, that now has over 20 members, many of which gather once a month. She is survived by her husband, Ted, her daughter, Julianne Borst, Piscataway, NJ, her mother Lillian Treible, Hendersonville, TN, a sister, Cathy Everetts, Scranton, PA and a number of nieces, nephews, cousins and in-laws. “ There never was, nor will there ever be, a better Rent-A-Mom. My heart (and face, you know that I'm not a pretty crier) weeps. She lit up every room that she entered and made you feel like family before you were even introduced.

“ My Aunt Susie was a wonderful, caring and kind woman. I loved the summer I got to spend with her, Julianne and Uncle Teddy. While life got in the way of us keeping in touch the way I know I should have, I will remember her as the amazing Aunt who I loved even through the distance. Rest in Peace Aunt Susie. I love you. Your niece- Sam

My cousin Susan was more like a sister to me. She was older than me and always guided me down the right path when I was younger. She was always very loving and caring. We spent Thanksgiving and summer together. We lived about 8 hours apart so we always looked forward to those special times. As we got older we both went our separate ways but kept in touch. I wish we had lived closer. A few years ago, we got together in Tennessee. Susan and Ted hosted me. It was like no time had passed. She made me feel welcomed and loved as she always did. I was hoping to see her again but life got in the way. I was reminded that we should always take the time to see the ones we love. I will miss her dearly and keep my memories close to my heart. I love you so much and I will miss you everyday. May God's peace be with you!
